

Classroom Expectations

For consistency we want to go over these classroom guidelines everytime. You can even ask kids if they know the “4 respects”. We expect children to follow these behavior guidelines:

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO “BE RESPECTFUL”

It means to treat with kindness, to care for, and to pay attention to that person or thing.

BE RESPECTFUL OF THE TEACHER

“Now we ask you, brothers and sisters, to give recognition to those who labor among you and lead you in the Lord and admonish you, and to regard them very highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.”¹ Thessalonians 5:12-13 CSB

“Obey your leaders and submit to them, since they keep watch over your souls as those who will give an account, so that they can do this with joy and not with grief, for that would be unprofitable for you.” Hebrews 13:17 CSB

BE RESPECTFUL OF EACH OTHER

“This is my command: Love one another as I have loved you.” John 15:12 CSB

“Therefore, whatever you want others to do for you, do also the same for them, for this is the Law and the Prophets” Matthew 7:12

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.” Galatians 5:22-23

BE RESPECTFUL OF THE PROPERTY

“The earth is the Lord's, and all that is in it.” I Corinthians 10:26

BE RESPECTFUL OF YOURSELF

“For it was you who created my inward parts; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I will praise you because I have been remarkably and wondrously made. Your works are wondrous, and I know this very well.” Psalm 139:13-14

“For you were bought at a price. So glorify God with your body.” 1 Corinthians 6:20

“Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has passed away, and see, the new has come!” 2 Corinthians 5:17
