

Thank You!

Thank you for purchasing my The Good Samaritan flashcard story. This resource contains a simplified version of the bible story The Good Samaritan. The story has been split into numerous different flashcards so that it can be broken down simpler and easier for students to remain engaged and focused.

I highly recommend cutting out and laminating each of the individual flashcards so that they will be stronger and longer lasting. Then, bind them together to keep as a book. However, you can also use them as part of a sequencing story and encouraging your students to sequence them into the order of the story.

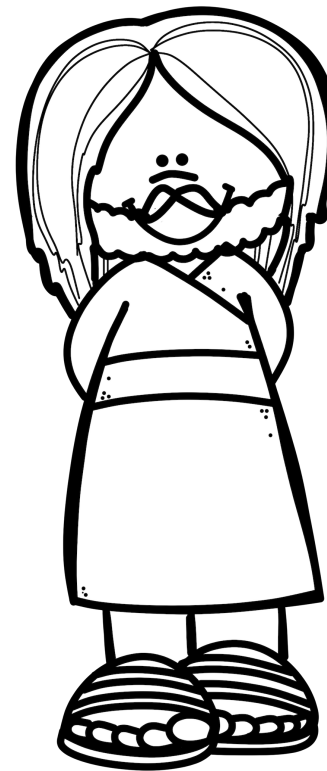

If you have any questions, comments or requests please don't hesitate to contact me. Don't forget to head back and leave feedback to gain yourself some TpT credits to save $$ on future purchases.

Thanks,

The Good Samaritan

A man asked Jesus "Teacher, what should I do so I can go to Heaven and live forever?"

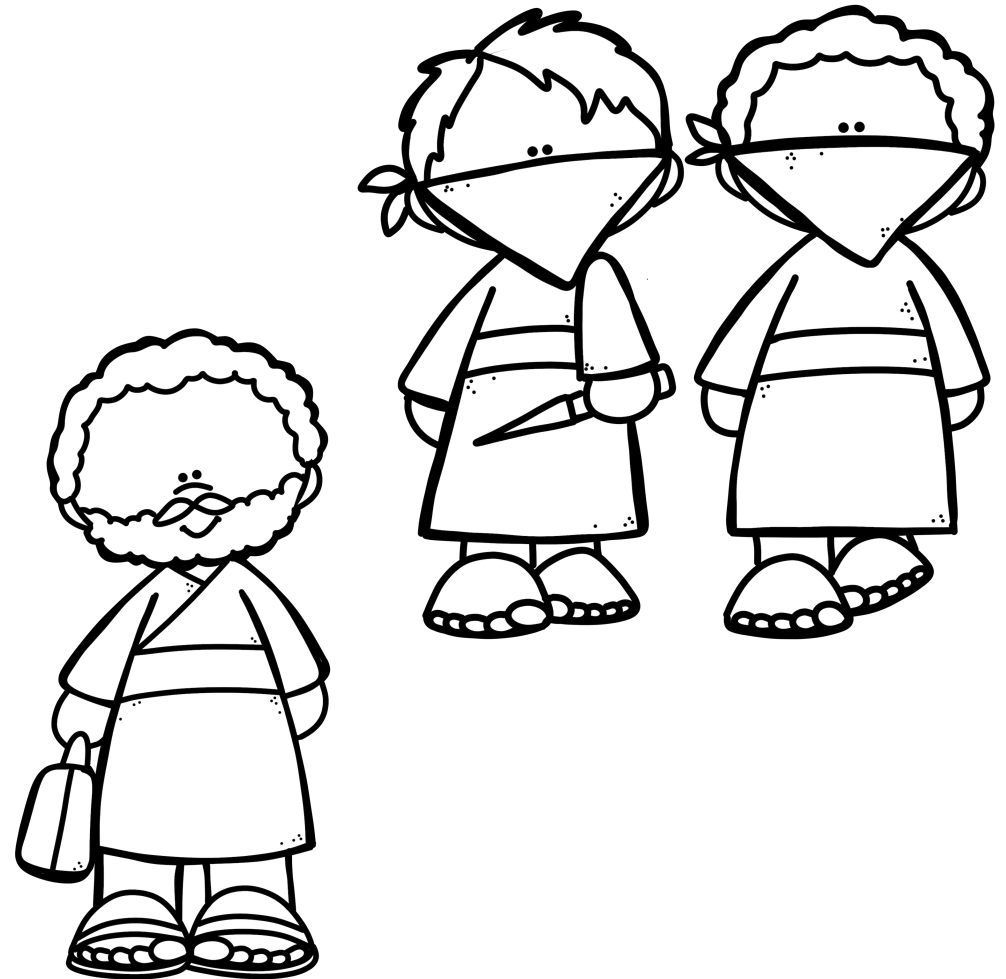

Jesus said “What is written in the Bible?” The man replied “Love the Lord, your God, with all your soul, strength and heart. And love your neighbor as yourself.”

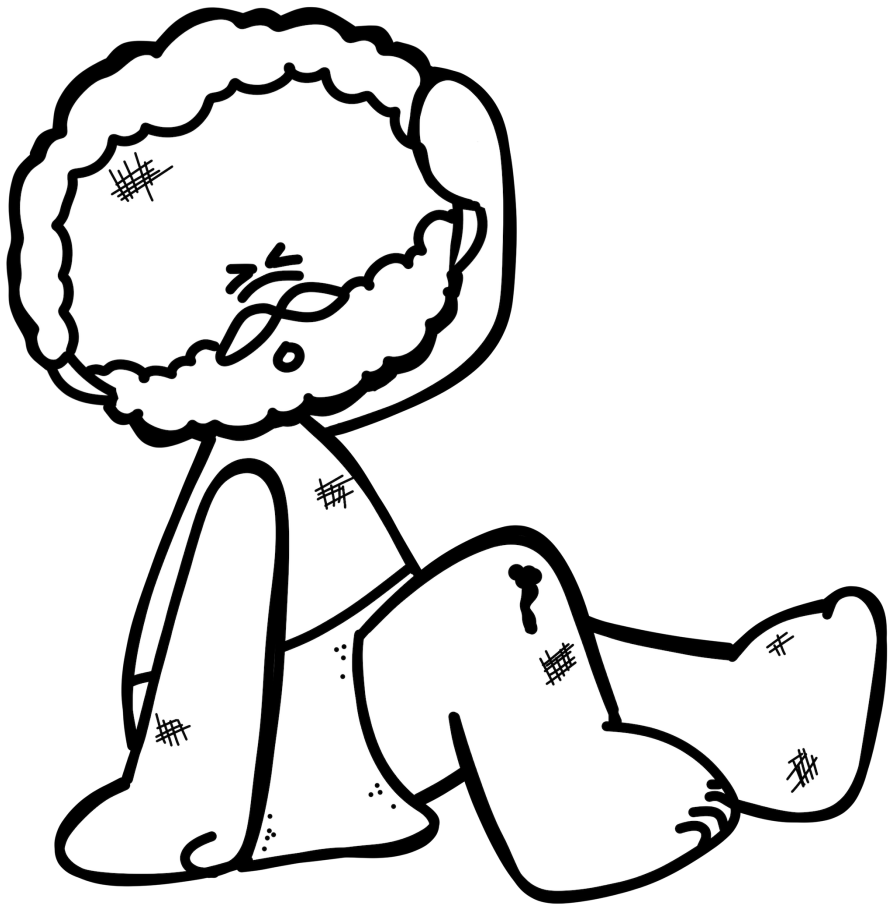

“That’s right! Do this, and you will live forever, in Heaven” Jesus told him. “But, who is my neighbor?” asked the man.

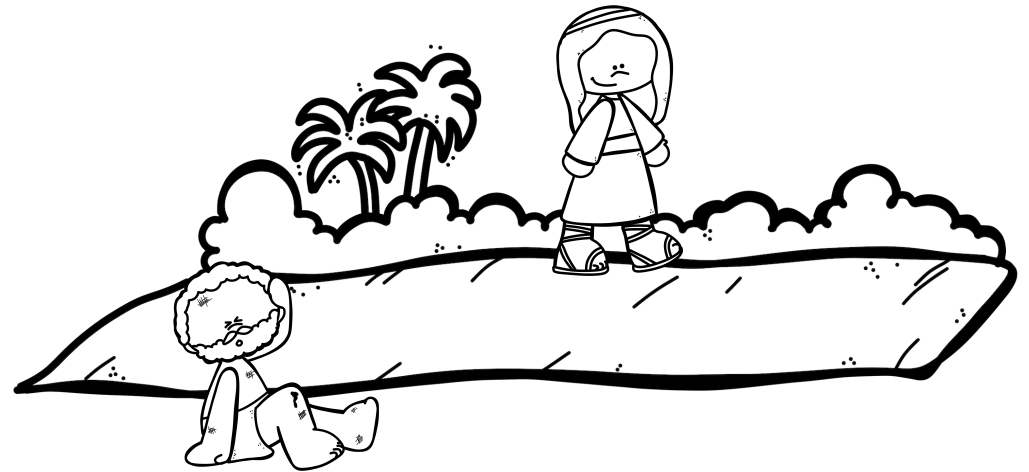

Jesus started to tell a story. "There was once a Jewish man, walking along a road. He was travelling to Jericho from Jerusalem. This would take 1-2 days of walking.

The road was rocky with lots of hills. The man was humming to himself when a group of men jumped out at him.

The group of men took the Jewish man's belongings and ripped off most of his clothes. They beat him up and left him lying there, bleeding.

Soon, a priest walked down the path. He pretended not to see the Jewish man. He crossed the road and didn't help him.

Then, a Levite, was walking down the road. Levites assists priests. He slowed down, looked at the man, but then walked past without helping him.

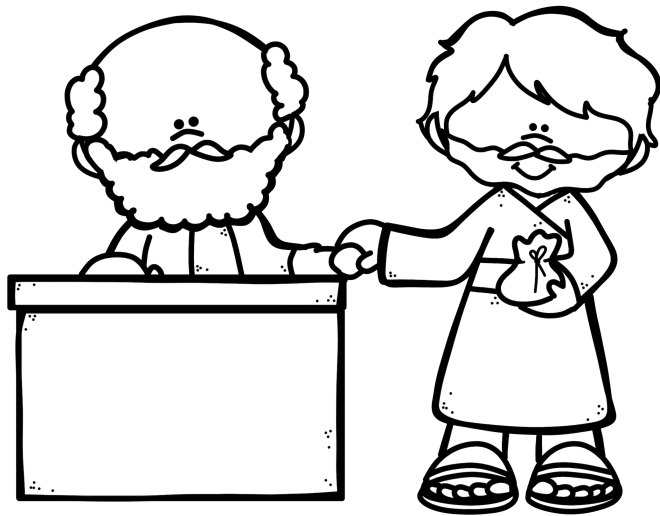

Anyone could see that the Jewish man was badly hurt, laying on the floor. He was bleeding, had few clothes left and was hardly breathing.

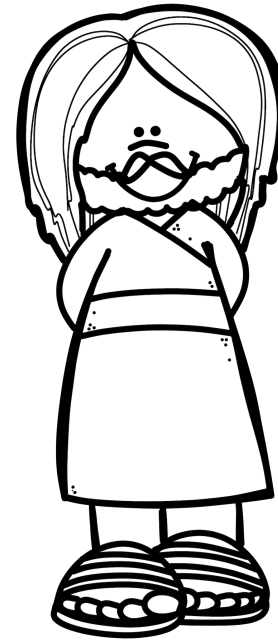

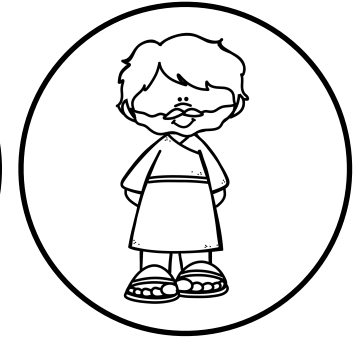

Then, a Samaritan walked past. Samaritan's didn't like Jews, because Jews didn't treat the Samaritans very well.

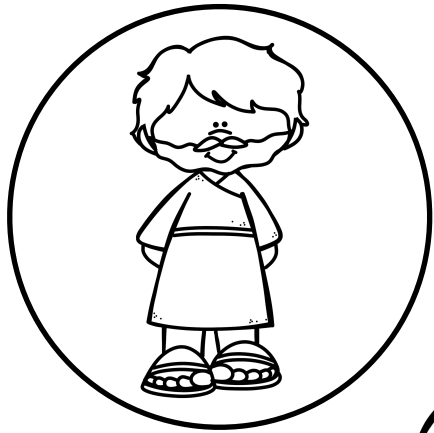

When the Samaritan saw the man he went over to help him. He put bandages on him and lifted him onto his donkey to take him to a hotel.

The next day, the Samaritan paid the hotel to look after the man until he was better. He asked if the man wasn't better after 2 months, he would return and pay the extra.

Jesus finished his story. "Who do you think out of the 3 men was the neighbor to the Jewish man?" he asked.

“The last one, he had compassion and he helped the Jewish man” the man replied. Jesus nodded, “Go and do the same as the Samaritan.”
